I pointed out that we had covered this in briefings before the Subcommittee and in a very general fashion I briefed him on the system. This brought it back to his mind. He then stated he thought we ought to have a meeting very soon and asked that I work this out with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff.

Talked with Mr. Michaels advising him of my conversation with Mr. Mahon and he said he would get to work on this and be in touch. I also inquired of Michaels if he would check with the staff man who sat in on NASA Appropriations briefings to determine if Mr. Webb had ever briefed on FOBs. Subsequently, Michaels advised he had checked and the answer was in the negative. In fact, it was pointed out that Mr. Webb meticulously refrained from briefing on military space matters.
